

STATE Texas	COUNTY Bexar		TOWN OR VICINITY San Antonio	3p 20
INDEX NUMBER TEX, 15-SANT, 21-	MONUMENT 130 SOLEDAD ST. Veramendi Palace
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. Tex-3128	History: Built in early 1800's by Don Fernando Veramendi ; building
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	completely raised in about 1911.
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS	Description: One story, flat roof, limestone, adobe, cypress and oak. Probably L shape with enclosed patio. Decidedly Mexican in Archi- tecture. Important historically.
		Reference: San Antonio Express, Oct. 29, 1929 Miss Adina De Zavalla, 141 Taylor St. San Antonio, Texas.
		HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

The original wooden doors of the Veramendi Palace are now kept in the Alamo. It was inside the great old courtyard door that Ben Milam met his death. He was buried in the patio.

Author of Card

Bartlett Cocke,
May 23, 1937.

Maverick Building,
San Antonio, Texas.